I understand that under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA), I have certain Patient Rights regarding my protected health information.

I understand that First Care Medical Clinic may use or disclose my protected health information for treatment, payment or health care operations – which means for providing health care to me, the patient; handing billing and payment; and, taking care of other health care operations. Unless required by law, there will be no other uses and disclosures of this information without my authorization.

First Care Medical Clinic has a detailed document called the “Notice of Privacy Practices.” It contains a more complete description of your rights to privacy and how we may use and disclose protected health information.

I understand that I have the right to read the “Notice” before signing this agreement. If I ask, First Care Medical Clinic will provide me with the most current Notice of Privacy Practices.

My signature below indicates that I have been given the chance to review such copy of the Notice of Privacy Practices. My signature means that I agree to allow First Care Medical Clinic to use and disclose my protected health information to carry out treatment, payment, and health care operations. I have the right to revoke this consent in writing at any time, except to the extent that First Care Medical Clinic has taken action relying on this consent.
