Unicorn Children's Foundation Announces Fifth Annual Denim, Diamonds And Dice Casino Night

The Unicorn Children's Foundation will hold its first fundraiser of the season, the Fifth Annual Denim, Diamonds, and Dice Casino Night on November 3 at The Ritz-Carlton, Palm Beach in Manalapan. The evening's proceeds will benefit the opening of Unicorn Village Academy, a specialized high school in South Florida for students with neurodevelopmental challenges between the ages of 14 and 22.

The evening promises all the excitement of Las Vegas and Monte Carlo, with gaming provided by Casino Party Nights Florida. In addition, a Hugh Hefner lookalike and his playboy bunnies will be on hand to greet guests. Also planned are lavish hors d'oeuvres, delicious desserts and an open bar. Guests will also have the opportunity to win fabulous prizes during a silent auction, split the pot in a 50/50 raffle or win a 14 karat gold and diamond pendant donated by Gregory's Fine Jewelry.

Dr. Rafael and Lori Cabrera

The event chairs are Kathleen Grace, Sarah Hassan and Tabitha LeTourneau, and the honorees are generous supporters Dr. Rafael and Lori Cabrera. Sponsors include Broward Bank of Commerce, Bank United, Sunshine State Health Plan, The Boca Raton Observer and NAV-TV Corp.

This event promises to be a winner for children affected by neurodevelopmental disorders, such as autism, ADHD, Asperger's syndrome, bipolar disorder, dyslexia, and other learning disorders. To date, Unicorn Children's Foundation has awarded in excess of $2.6 million to support various education, awareness and research initiatives around the world.

"We are grateful to our supporters who will enable us to fill a gap in available services in the community for adolescents with neurodiversity," said Sharon Alexander, executive director. "Unicorn Village Academy, unlike most traditional high school models, allows students the rare opportunity
