Champion Porsche's Eagerly Awaited 911 GT3 R Hybrid

Contradictions challenge us to reconcile them: Dynamism and efficiency. Performance and safety. Tradition and innovation. We seek out these contradictions and reconcile them in our own way – in a harmonious overall concept that we call Porsche Intelligent Performance. The result? Intelligent drive concepts. We develop vehicles that are lighter, more efficient and more economical, which makes them more precise, more agile and more dynamic. A further contradiction is environmental technology in motorsports. A paradox? Find out more about the new 911 GT3 R Hybrid. Champion Porsche, 500 W. Plastic Surgery Specialists Of Boca Raton Celebration Benefits Unicorn Children's Foundation

Colleagues, friends and family recently joined Dr. Rafael Cabrera to welcome his new associate, Dr. Scott Farber. Dr. Farber, a fourth-generation surgeon originally from South Florida, brings a highly credentialed background, similar to that of Dr. Cabrera's, to Plastic Surgery Specialists of Boca Raton. Dr. Farber has spoken nationally on the topics of reconstructive and cosmetic breast surgery and specializes in breast enhancement and body contouring techniques. The elegant reception at the office and surgicenter of Plastic Surgery Specialists of Boca Raton was particularly special because it focused attention on the mission of the Unicorn Children's Foundation. In welcoming guests, Dr. Cabrera emphasized the importance of the Unicorn to him and his family and emphasized the organization's need for continued support. Plastic Surgery Specialists Of Boca Raton, 951 N.W. 13th St., Boca Raton, 561-393-6400; pssbocaraton.com.
