Introducing Our Newest Clinician! Lauren Taylor, Nurse Practitioner

Lauren Taylor, NP, MPH, RN has over 25 years of hospital-based nursing experience primarily in obstetrics and gynecology. In the past she worked in recovery rooms and pediatric intensive care units.

Lauren graduated from the University of Florida with a BSN. After working as an RN for many years, she decided to return to school to become a nurse practitioner. She completed her nurse practitioner certificate from UCLA in 2003. As a nurse practitioner, Lauren has worked in psychiatry and urgent care settings. Her experience in psychiatry has helped her to better understand chronic pain patients and treat them from a holistic viewpoint.

Lauren will be treating patients in our Salinas office.
