Dr. Trenkle, owner of the Los Angeles Center for Ear, Nose, Throat and Allergy, is one of the most experienced balloon sinuplasty surgeons in Southern California. This revolutionary procedure is changing the face of chronic sinusitis and alleviating suffering across the country.

EDUCATION: University of California, Riverside (Undergraduate); Western University of Health Sciences (Medical School); Michigan State University (Residency)

Proud Moment: I am especially proud of the growth of my practice in the face of a changing healthcare climate. We provide university-caliber healthcare to the community and serve patients from all walks of life. I am very fortunate to serve the underserved and am lucky to have such an amazing staff and work environment. We are working toward changing the healthcare experience to adapt to a more modern and technologic time.
