

COMMON LABORATORY TESTS IN PREGNANCY

The following is a list of laboratory test and cultures that our office performs during your pregnancy. Those marked * are performed only on certain high-risk populations. Those marked ** are performed only with patient consent.

Results will be discussed at your next visit unless there is something that needs to be addressed prior to appointment.

Weeks 6-14:

- Blood type and Rh factor
- Antibody screen
- Syphilis screen
- Rubella titer
- Complete blood count
- Vitamin D
- Hepatitis B screen
- HIV
- Urinalysis
- Toxoplasmosis Screen*
- Cystic fibrosis screening**
- Thyroid screen*
- Hemoglobin electrophoresis*
- Gonorrhea culture
- Chlamydia culture
- Vaginal culture
- Pap smear (if one has not been done within the last year)

Weeks 16-18:

- Penta Screen for birth defects**

Weeks 24-28:

- 1 hour glucose challenge test
- Complete blood count
- Antibody screen (if Rh negative)
- 3 hour glucose tolerance test (if 1 hour glucose challenge is elevated)

Weeks 34-36:

- Group B Streptococcus culture