

Facts About Polymorphisms

- They are not rare – up to 50% of the population may have a specific polymorphism
- Not all polymorphisms are “bad”, some make us more resistant to specific disease, etc.
- The effects of most polymorphisms are modifiable through diet, lifestyle and specific medical intervention