Clinic Description

The clinic combines primary care along with a wide span of clinical cases. This includes a significant oncology segment of practice as well as complicated recalcitrant conditions.

The clinic blends modern and classical integrative naturopathic diagnosis. This includes routine physical examination, lab testing, image ordering, referral, etc. It also includes naturopathic diagnostic techniques including iris diagnosis, nutritional physical exam, heart tone diagnosis, Chapman reflexes, Chinese tongue and fingernail diagnosis, dried blood evaluation, and orthopedic and spinal assessments. Training and ongoing support is provided.

The clinic provides modern integrative naturopathic treatment that includes botanical, homeopathic, drainage, pharmaceutical, manual therapy, dietetic, counseling, acupuncture, trigger point needling, neural, regenerative and prolo-injection therapy, intravenous nutrient therapy, nutritional interventions and has a lab on site. Specialty modalities include extensive naturopathic physiotherapy applications (constitutional hydrotherapy and Bio-Thermal Therapy®) and visceral manipulation therapies. Training and ongoing support is provided.

The clinic has a group model of practice with a lead physician on a particular case. This is a busy clinical setting with a wide range of conditions treated. It is typical to have patients in clinic who have travelled from various parts of the region and country for care. As one of our residents remarked 'It is like a hospital here!' With a support staff of 12 clinic assistants we see approximately 50 patients in clinic daily. We are looking for a doctor who is comfortable with a busy clinical atmosphere, willing and able to be a part of a team, and is interested in long term professional growth and clinical competence.

LOCATION:

Portland is a dynamic city, full of character, charm, and culture. There are charming neighborhoods of various types throughout the city. There is a strong support of public transport and bike commuting. Home to the MLS Portland Timbers soccer team and the NBA Portland Trail Blazers. A foodie Mecca!
