10 Beauty Products to Cool You Down

To give your skin a refreshing wakeup call, stash your creams in the refrigerator. "Most skin care products can be safely stored in the fridge," says David Bank, M.D., a cosmetic dermatologist in Mount Kisco, NY. Not so fast with your foundation: "It could cause separation

To give your skin a refreshing wakeup call, stash your creams in the refrigerator. "Most skin care products can be safely stored in the fridge," says David Bank, M.D., a cosmetic dermatologist in Mount Kisco, NY. Not so fast with your foundation: "It could cause separation or change the formula," he says. A better way to prevent a makeup meltdown? A cooling
