

Congratulations Dr. Michael Post!

Dr. Post is now RehabOne's Chief Medical Legal Officer. His extensive experience as a highly respected medical legal evaluator and treating physician will serve him well in his new role mentoring our physicians, supporting our administrative team, and optimizing our IT infrastructure.

Why choose a physiatry-based medical legal evaluator?

Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation physicians view the "whole person" - not just injured body parts. This unique perspective is essential to accurately determine the extent of permanent disability, and it is critical to address the need for other specialty evaluations and provide recommendations for future medical care.
