4) Your Authorization Is Required for Other Disclosures. Except as described above, we will not use or disclose your medical information unless you authorize (permit) the Facility in writing to disclose your information. You may revoke your permission, which will be effective only after the date of your written revocation.

5) You Have Rights Regarding Your Medical Information. You have the following rights regarding your medical information, provided that you make a written request to the Privacy Office, 14629 Beechnut street, Houston, TX 77083 to invoke the right.

- Right to request restriction. You may request limitations on your medical information we use or disclose for healthcare treatment, payment, or operations (e.g., you may ask us not to disclose that you have had a particular surgery), but we are not required to agree to your request. If we agree, we will comply with your request unless the information is needed to provide you with emergency treatment.
- Right to confidential communications. You may request communications in a certain way or at a certain location, but you must specify how or where you wish to be contacted.
- Right to confidential communications, You have the right to inspect and copy your medical information regarding decisions about your care; however, psychotherapy notes may not be inspected or copied. We may charge a fee for copying, mailing and supplies. Under limited circumstances, your request may be denied; you may request review of the denial by another licensed healthcare professional chosen by the Facility. The Facility will comply with the outcome of the review.
- Right to request amendment. If you believe that the medical information we have about you is incorrect or incomplete, you may request an amendment on the form provided by the Facility, which requires certain specific information. The Facility is not required to accept the amendment.
- Right to accounting of disclosures. You may request a list of the disclosures of your medical information that have been made to persons or entities other than for healthcare treatment, payment or operations in the past (6) years, but not prior to July 6, 2016. After the first request, there may be a charge.
- Right to copy of the Notice. You may request a paper copy of the Notice at any time, even if you have been provided with an electronic copy.

6) Requirements Regarding This Notice. The Facility is required by law to provide you with this Notice. We will be governed by this Notice for as long as it is in effect. The Facility may change this Notice and these changes will be effective for the medical information we have about you as well as any information we receive in the future. Each time you register at the Facility for healthcare services, you may receive a copy of the Notice in effect at the time.

7) Complaints. If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with the Facility or with the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services. You will not be penalized or retaliated against in any way for making a complaint to the Facility or the Department of Health and Human Services.
