

Naima Cheema, MD, is the CEO and lead physician at Nexclin Medicine in Roswell, Georgia. Dr. Cheema and her staff are dedicated to providing comprehensive care for the total well being of their patients. Dr. Cheema offers a wide range of services, ranging from hormone replacement therapies, hair loss treatments, chemical peels, botox and fillers, PRP treatments, weight loss treatments, and family medicine. A visit with her office begins with a complete physical exam followed by a hormone consultation and aesthetic treatments. All services can be done on the same day. Prior to Nexclin Medicine, Dr. Cheema spent eight years working as a family physician. During her work, she realized that family physicians are missing a major area of patient's well being, which is how they feel about themselves. She was inspired to establish Nexclin Medicine so that she could provide comprehensive care for the internal and external well being of her patients. "We combine the aesthetic, anti aging and family medicine services under one roof. All services are provided by well trained, certified medical professionals. It is our commitment to our patients to work towards a healthy and beautiful life," she said. Dr. Cheema has received several accolades and awards including, the Most Compassionate Physician Award and the Patient's Choice Award. She attributes her success to hard work and commitment to providing the best quality services to her patients.

Dr. Cheema was inspired to pursue a career in medicine by her father, who was a renowned psychiatrist. Dr. Cheema recalls shadowing her father in his clinic as a teenager. Dr. Cheema is a graduate of Emory Family Medicine Residency Program. She is board certified in family medicine and aesthetic medicine. In her spare time, Dr. Cheema enjoys traveling, trying new cuisines, and being with her husband and their three children, Sameer, Raima, and Zane. Dr. Cheema is fluent in English, Spanish, Urdu, Hindi, and Punjabi, which allows her to work with a diverse clientele.
